

Alumni Amalgam 'Rendezvous' at DAV, Paschim Enclave

An aura of nostalgia and reminiscences spread over the evening as DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave hosted 'Rendezvous-Alumni Meet 2011' on its premises on Saturday, February 12, 2011. With a beaming tilak on their forehead and fond memories of their bygone days, around 200 alumni walked in decked up as divas and dudes. The esteemed guests of honour who aggrandized the event included Justice R.N. Mittal, Vice President, DAVCMC, Mrs and Mr. R.S. Sharma, General Secretary, DAVCMC, Sh. R.R. Bhalla, Treasurer, DAVCMC, Mr. M.L. Aeri, Director, Colleges, DAVCMC and Mrs and Dr. V.P. Gupta. Other dignitaries who graced the occasion were Dr. R.K. Malik, Dr. Vinod Sharma, Mrs. Monika Mittal, Mrs and Mr. Rajan Gera and Dr. B.D. Bhushan. The Meet commenced with an informal welcome address by Principal Manju Malik. She expressed her heart-felt gratitude towards all the 'ladies and gentlemen' who made the event an extraordinary one. Multifarious activities which added colour to the timeless ties were on the panel to make the evening more rejuvenating. The past was rekindled by lighting the bonfire, which was symbolic of knowledge as well as togetherness. It took all the revered guests 'down the memory lane' and they were reminded of their own sweet schooldays. They were mesmerized by the scintillating performances of the alumni as well as the lip-smacking food. The evening was indeed a spectacular one and it reminded everyone of the last lines of 'The Solitary Reaper' by William Wordsworth,

*“The Music in my heart I bore
Long after it was heard no more.”*
