

'Jubilee Jingle' at DAV Paschim Enclave

It is rightly said that the 25th Anniversary for an institution is a celebration as bright and enduring as silver. To commemorate the Silver Jubilee of the school, DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave, Rohtak Road held its 25th Anniversary 'Milestones' & Prize Distribution ceremony on Thursday, 29th December, 2011 with much zeal and gusto. The Chief Guest of the gala event was Sh. Kulanand Joshi, Additional Secretary to the CM of Delhi and Deputy Commissioner, Excise Department. Justice R.N. Mittal, President, DAVCMC & Chairman of the school presided over the function. Dr. Richa Dewan, Medical Superintendent, LNJP Hospital was the Guest of Honour. The worthy parents of all the students also stood witness to the stupendous show.

In her inaugural address, the Principal, Ms Manju Malik spoke in retrospect about the laying of the foundation-stone of the school and how it has crossed every milestone by achieving success in all fields.

The cultural extravaganza commenced with an Invocation to the Muses, by lighting of the knowledge lamp. Thereafter, the zealous guests were warmly welcomed by a soulful swagatam song. Then, the audience was enchanted by a brilliant blend of Rhythm and Ragas by the school orchestra. An exemplary aura of fantasy was unveiled with the presentation of the timeless tale of Cinderella, which was a hit with the audience. It was followed by a graceful semi-classical dance performance, which mesmerized one and all. Subsequently, enigmatic dancers filled the air with patriotic fervour by dancing to the tunes of Vande Mataram. The Silver Jubilee Jingle of the school celebrating its 25 years of excellence turned the crowds jubilant. An insightful contemporary dramatic presentation 'Carpe Diem- Seize the Day' proved to be a revelation to the audience. The event concluded with a magnificent medley of Rajasthani dance forms culminating in the Grand Finale that left the audience spellbound.

The cultural programme was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony, wherein the guests gave away the prizes to the meritorious and talented students, who had outstanding performance in the field of academics, sports and co-curricular activities.

In his inspiring speech, the Chief Guest expressed his heartfelt pleasure and congratulations to the School Fraternity on the occasion of Silver Jubilee and applauded the efforts of the staff and the students. He expressed his best wishes and hopes that the school would achieve more such milestones in the times ahead.

The event offered an opportunity to one and all associated with school, to look back at the good times spent together and a time to look ahead to live dreams together.
