

'DAV Essence' enthralls the elite

To mark the beginning of its Silver Jubilee Year, DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave scripted yet another leaf of its success on May 11, 2011 with the unfolding of its first chapter of 'DAV Essence' Interschool events, "D' dynamique"- science and technology fiesta. There are many more such events waiting to be unfurled throughout the year. Many elite schools of Delhi like Delhi Public School, Rohini, Bal Bharati Public School, Pitampura and Rohini Branch, Hansraj Model School, Punjabi Bagh, St. Marks Girls Sr. Secondary School, Ryan International School, Rohini, VV DAV Public School, Vikas Puri, DAV Public School, Shreshtha Vihar, and many other DAV schools of Delhi participated enthusiastically. Copious fun-filled activities like A Peep into Perky Planets, Abstract Art, Drape your Disc, Be an Eco Journalist, Graffiti, Web Mart, Science for Society, Chords in Concord, Know Your Science Quotient, Techno Tales, Essence in Lens etc. were on the panel.

The members of the jury included expert educationists. They were Mr. Arun Kukreja, PGT, Physics, Darbari Lal DAV Model School, Shalimar Bagh, Ms. Yogita, Head of the Department, Biotechnology, Kulachi Hansraj Model School, Ashok Vihar, and Ms. Anshu Sehgal, PGT, Computer Science, Kulachi Hansraj Model School, Ashok Vihar.

It was amazing to witness the students exhibiting their innovative and incredible creativity in the world of Science and computers with astounding enthusiasm. The school has been initiating such magnum opus on a regular basis in order to provide a stable podium to the students so that they can showcase their latent talent. The winning schools pocketed a number of trophies, displaying the Logo of D' dynamique, at the end of the day. The members of the jury cherished the event and enjoyed it to the fullest. Principal Manju Malik congratulated the Activity Incharges, Ms. Kavita Sachdeva, Ms. Nimisha Sharma and Ms. Bharti Malhotra for their unswerving efforts in organizing such a magnificent event. She also extended her congratulations to the entire staff fraternity for making it a huge success.
