

DAV BIDS ADIEU TO CLASS XII

With a beaming tilak on their forehead and fond memories of their school days, the students of class XII of DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave bade adieu to the school on January 22, 2011. The girls decked up as dazzling divas and boys, handsome hunks added glamour to the show. Principal Manju Malik conveyed her heart felt blessings for their bright future and inspired them to serve the society at large. The programme commenced on an informal note. Ketan Sharma, President, Student Parliament gave the welcome address. The students of class XI made everybody nostalgic with their heart rendering numbers 'Yaadein' and 'Friends Forever'. An interactive session including witty 'Question – Answer' round added colour and spice to the day. Dance Sequences including hip-hop numbers were the show stealers. The function concluded with rendering of vote of thanks by the Cultural Minister of the Student Parliament. It was a fabulous show indeed!
