

DAV commemorates 25 years of success

It was, indeed, a moment of great pride and jubilation as DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave commemorated the inaugural ceremony of its Silver Jubilee Celebrations in its school premises on April 28, 2011. Since its inception in 1986, the school has, certainly, set new benchmarks and scripted the story of its success. Mr. S.R. Arora, ex-Principal, Hansraj College, Delhi University and Member, LMC as well as Mr. Ravinder Kumar, Manager of the school graced the occasion. They were given heartfelt welcome by Principal Manju Malik. She shared her innumerable reminiscences of the metamorphoses of the school which was, no doubt, a school with a difference. Ms. R.M. Anand, one of the founder teachers narrated how the school grew up from young 'Kislaya' to a big self sufficient lush green tree bearing sweet fruits. The celebrations began with a Silver Jubilee song penned by English teachers Ms. Nimisha Sharma and Ms. Mandeep Kaur and composed by Music teacher, Mr. Mani Kumar Jha of the school. Thereafter, a lyrical dance performance by the little angels of the Junior Wing set the stage on fire. A play spreading the message of DAV and mark its progress was staged for the audience. On this auspicious occasion, the Annual school magazine 'Kislaya', with a new designed layout, was unveiled by the worthy guests. The celebrations concluded with a pledge administered by the teachers that they will leave no stone unturned in order to take the school to new heights. Ketan Sharma, President, Student Parliament made all the students also administer a pledge to endeavour to excel in Academics, shine in sports, respect their elders, uphold Vedic values and be responsible patriotic citizens of the country. The Chief Guest congratulated the Principal for the completion of 25 years and applauded the ardour of the students and the staff for presenting such a magnificent show. He stressed on the importance of hard work, determination and positive attitude in the life of a student. Ms. Kavita Sachdeva, Incharge, Activities rendered vote of thanks. It was, indeed, the beginning of jubilations. There are more surprises and celebrations ahead. The occasion justifies the lines of Robert Frost,

*The woods are lovely, dark and deep
But I have promises to keep.
And miles to go before I sleep
and miles to go before I sleep.*
