

VEDIC CHETNA SHIVIR

DAV Centenary Public School, Paschim Enclave organized an overnight Vedic Chetna Shivir – JAGRITI on March 20-21, 2010 in the school premises with an objective to propagate the vedic values and thus contributing in making a morally upright society. More than 80 students participated in the Shivir. Mr. Baldev Jindal, a staunch Arya Samajist and Industrialist was the Chief Guest. Sh. C.L. Khanna, another dedicated Arya Samajist , graced the occasion as the Guest of Honour.

The Guests recited spiritual vedic sermons to inaugurate the Shivir and invigorate the participants.

The teachers and the students enjoyed the Shivir thoroughly by attending Bonfire, Yoga classes, Sports and Drawing activities, Patriotic Movies and being a part of Tree Plantation Drive.

To give an impetus to the enlightenment programme Prabhat Pheri was taken out with the students proclaiming Vedic Dharma in fervid chorus.

Bhajan Sandhya was organized on the concluding day. The soulful Bhajans left everyone in piety and sublime holiness.

Mr. Baldev Jindal gave away the certificates to the participants. Principal Ms. Manju Malik applauded the efforts of everyone in making the Shivir a grand success and said this Shivir was in furtherance with CBSE's introduction of the scheme of Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation which aims at making the students a wholesome human being by creating in them positive attitude, human values, concern for environment and the society at large.

